suitor went directly to her father and told him all about it Mr Day looked at his daughter much avously that night as he sat behind the tea urn with such a comical as sumption of dignity

So I m to lose my [illegible] housekeeper before long am I questioned he signi cantly

Why papa what do you mean and kitty blushed scarlet

Mr Gilbert called on me to-day He is an excellent young man and the son of one of my oldest friends I heartily approve your choice, my dear

He promised to keep the engagement a secret, said Kitty in a vexed tone

So he told me but concluded afterward to break his promise rather than act dishonest ly For it wouldn t have been quite fair to have concealed the engagement from me

I don t know why I m sure It s only a bit of my fun anyway I never meant to marry him

Mr Day looked at her sternly

I m not jesting she added pettishly He threw himself into such a passion that I was fairly frightened into saying Yes and sorry enough I ve been for it since

Are you in earnest Kitty

Yes, I am, and the blue eyes flashed defiantly

Is it possible that a daughter of mine has so little feeling and principle

Now papa, what is the use of l [illegible] You know me of old I m n t [illegible] want you to help me out of it

But you ve given your word Kitty and must abide to it

Didn t he break his Yes, and was justified in doing so But you are not Still, I ll give you a choice of two evils, if you think marrying young Gil bert one Few girls would Either keep your promise and make the best of circum stances, or break it and pass the winter in the country with your Aunt Dorothy For I m not going to have you play fast and loose with men s hearts after this fashion

Kitty looked up in her father s face dishe lievingly, but determination was written there, and, filled with sudden dismay she be gan to plead for a reprieve of the sentence

But Mr Day wouldn t listen You can stay in the city and participate in its gayeties on one condition only, and that I ve men tioned, said he

Was ever anything so provoking? ' mut tered Kitty, after her father had gone down town ' Aunt Dorothy lives in a forlorn looking old place, and it s a perfect wilder ness around her, and papa knows that she is the crossest old maid in existence But I ll be even with him yet '

The next morning Kitty announced her in tention of remaining in the city But papa if Mr Gilbert himself should grow tired of the engagement, after knowing me better, you ll not punish me for that, will you? and her eyes trembled mischievously Certainly not, child What a question to ask.

But Kitty had a motive in it A plan had grown itself to her mind for outwitting both father and lover But she didn t mean to hurry, and began to pave the way for its success cautiously As good luck would have it, who should call on her that morning but Cousin Joe the firm ally and abettor of all her childish mischief, and as ready to help her now as then

Oh! Joe, such a trouble as I m in and she clasped her hands with a pretty little ges ture of appeal

What you, Kitty? Is your canary bird fractious, or is it something about a new dress or bonnet that don t equal your expecta tions?

Kitty looked at him so reproachfully that he was sobered in a minute

Tell me all about it, whispered he

I m engaged and if she d been announc ing her own funeral, she couldn t have done it in a more solemn voice

Joe flushed up to the roots of his hair and clasped and unclasped his hands in a nervous sort of way, but didn t say anything Kitty watched him maliciously It s to that young Gilbert He s a splendid fellow, and has great dark eyes and the dearest little mustache. You know him, don t you?

No—yes—a little stammered Joe to the delight of his listener But what s the trouble about? Won t your father consent? and he looked so utterly wretched that Kitty with a faint twinge of remorse hastened to tell him the true state of the case He brightened up wonderfully Then you don t love the man after all he asked

Well, I don t know she answered medi tatively I never looked into the matter much I suppose he s as good as any one, but I m not in a marrying mood at pres ent

Joe s countenance fell again Will you tell me just what you want? said he a little stern ly.

Now don t be cross Joe you re the only friend I ve got in the world and kitty raised her soft eyes imploringly

He was mollified at once Why not break with Gilbert and accept the alternative suggested he Twon t be so very dull at Aunt Dorothy s I ve a college friend in the neighborhood and can visit you occasional ly

Poor Joe! The idea of having her all to himself was delightful and he waited for her answer with subdued eagerness

Is that the only plan that has occurred to you? answered Kitty sarcastically you haven t much ingenuity if you can t devise some other way of getting me out of this di lemma I ve no intention of becoming in animated fossil Now listen to what I pro pose?

Then Kitty disclosed her plot and Joe listened approvingly and the two heads were still bent close together when [illegible] Gilbert called an hour later He entered unannounc ed and Kitty gave such a start and blush at him, that Joe s hopes again sank to zero But if he d been sensible he d known that her embarrassment was the result of surprise rather than emotion She was very arch and winning that morning until after Joe left the little witch knew he was on needles all th time; then she changed her tactics and grew cold and distant So you had to tell papa after all she sneered men can t keep a secret

Her lover tried to explain but she wouldn t listen and gave him such a cutting s would have done credit to the shrillest and most sarcastic of viragoes

Is this a specimen of her temper thought he, escaping into the street as soon as possible

Who d have thought her soft yes could flash so or the lines of her face sharpen in such a curious way? She really looked dan gerous

Had he seen Kitty laugh and clap her hands as she vanished from the scene he d have been more puzzled than ever

The next time they met she greeted him with such a charming smile, and looked so naive and unconscious that this little episode would have passed from his memory if it hadn t been for one circumstance He acci dentally (?) overheard a conversation between
